GLOVERS FANS: ENTHUSIASTIC BUT CHEAP

On September 3, 1942, Southpaw Earl Jones of Gloversville-Johnstown hurled one of the greatest games in league history. Jones not only no-hit the Rome Colonels, but he smashed the strikeout record with 22 whiffs. The fans carried Jones from the mound and took up a collection for him -- which showed where their enthusiasm ended -- as it netted only $70.
